

Kilmainham Arts Festival

Fri. 26th [from 9pm]
Sat. 27th [11am -late]
August 2011

Free Arts Festival with something for everyone!

FESTIVAL PROGRAMME

<http://festival.kilmainhamartsclub.com>

Programme is subject to change. Please visit website for latest info and line-up

Festival Office

Festival Information and Workshop Registration

Front steps of Dublin Hilton Kilmainham

The Kilmainham Arts Festival is organised by volunteers with the generous support of local sponsors:

Áras
Nua-Ealaíne
na
hÉireann

Dublin City Council
Comhairle Cathrach Bhaile Átha Cliath

The Patriots Inn

LimeTree
| Café |

k&nevans

SUPERQUINN Heuston

Musicmaker

O' Sullivans Graphics, The Black Lion Pub Inchicore, Bolgers Butchers, Bole's chemist, Keatings Chemist Inchicore, Cutting Edge barbers, Sarsfield Motors, Sheldon Park Leisure Club, Vincenzo's Pizzeria, Fresh n Clean Laundry and Inchicore Workingman's Club

Festival Map

Saturday 27th August .. On the street...

11.30am: Official Festival Launch

With Dublin Lord Mayor Andrew Montague with music from members of Meath Harp Ensemble

10am - 6pm: Art on the Rails

Featuring the work of fifty exhibitors, both artists and art groups.
Browse or buy art at this wonderful outdoor art exhibition.

12pm-6pm Festival Mural by Niall Dooley

Live Drawing installation by local artist

2pm - 5pm: "TRANCE" by Paola Catizone

The artist will make a body size 2 hand drawing which will arrive as a physical response to music from the trance dance music tradition. Music by Nigel Wood.

12-6pm: Children's Art Exhibition

Children from local primary schools Our Lady of Lourdes Inchicore, Gaelscoil Inchicore, Scoil Mhuire Gan Smal and Our Lady of the Wayside Bluebell exhibit their artwork.

Friday 26th

Hilton Lounge

9pm - The Last Band in the World

Featuring the music of Muddy Waters, Nina Simone and many more

Saturday 27th

Acoustic Stage

12-7pm

Music from:

Jesse Rodriguez

Sarah Franklyn

Grace Wilde

Alison Sleator

Gwen Moore

Maggie Hildrick

Shoman and the Purple Trees

Dominic McGorian & Seamus Ludden.

Hilton Lounge

9pm - Left Right and Centre

Veteran blues men return to Dublin after touring the world with such luminaries as Donovan, Nick Lowe and Van Morrison.

Foyer

All day

Photography exhibition featuring the work of selected photographers

1pm-5pm

Get your Portrait done!

Artist Wendy Stephens interacts with Festival goers with her colourful, spontaneous portraits.

Saturday 27th

Film/Theatre Room

12pm Film screening – Film made by students from Gael Schoil, Inchicore

1pm CINE-KIDS – Surprise Kids Movie
Enjoy a classic children's movie. Parental supervision required.

2.30pm – 4.30pm

CINE-CAFE: Irish Film Shorts

Short Film screenings from a variety of Irish Directors including Ken Wardrop, Vincent Gallagher and Jamie Hannigan. With Special Guest Appearances. Hosted by Howard Linnane.

5pm – 6.30pm

'The Friends of Jack Kairo'

Simon Toal's hilarious performance of his acclaimed, adult, one-man play. Think Casablanca meets Police Squad via Monty Python...

7pm – 9pm

CINE-CAFE presents acclaimed Irish feature film Kings (Tom Collins, 2007) starring Colm Meaney. Post Screening Q&A with Special Guest. Hosted by Howard Linnane.

Saturday 27th August - Workshop & World Dance Room

'WASSA WASSA' AFRICAN DRUM & DANCE WORKSHOPS

No experience needed, drums provided.

12 pm – 1pm:	Children's African drum workshops
1.15pm – 2.15pm:	Children's African dance workshops €5 for 1 workshop, €8 for 2 workshops
3pm – 4pm:	Adult's African drum workshops
4.15pm – 5.15pm:	Adult's African dance workshops €10 for 1 workshop, €15 for 2 workshops

6.00pm – 7.30pm “Sing Your Heart out” Workshop

Based on the teachings of Chloe Goodchild, led by - Naked Voice Tutor – Emer Dolphin. No experience necessary. All adults welcome. 10 euros

8.30pm – World Dance Performance and DJ Nigel Woods ‘Ear to the Globe’

Iranian, Tribal Bellydance, Tango, Irish and Modern European Dance performances, followed by DJ Nigel Wood of Dublin City Radio’s “Ear to the Globe” Dance Event. A range of world dance rhythms to get your feet travelling to all corners of the globe. Suggested donation €5-10.

Áras
Nua-Ealaíne
na
hÉireann

Irish Museum of Modern Art (IMMA)

In the Grounds

11am – 5pm Kids Art Activities

Variety of fun activities including facepainting and games.

11am - 12pm: Knitting Circle Yarn and needles provided.

St James Street Brass Band

30-strong local Brass Band will perform in the grounds

Bring a Picnic – Come and enjoy the beautiful grounds of IMMA with a Picnic!

Áras
Nua-Ealaíne
na
hÉireann

In the Walled Gardens

1pm - 5pm
Mad Hatters Tea Party presents

"Lamia"

'A tale of danger, dragons, sorcery and swordfights full to bursting with action and Yodelling.'

A costumed experiential tour of the maze. Every hour on the hour, lasts 30 minutes approx.

Studio 8 and 9 (opposite IMMA reception)

1pm- 5pm Art Workshops for all:

Make your own Puppet show workshop

Artist Enda Flynn shows how to make simple sock puppets which can become anything you imagine!

Face Drawing The basics of portraiture. Adult Art Workshop with Cora Buckley.

'Music Maker' Stage

12pm-6pm
Music from:

Roots Warrior	Reggae DJ
Captain Atlas	Piano, Drums, Vocals
The Four in Hand	Roots and Funk
Sive	Ambient rock and pop
The Rolling Drones	Bagpipes band
The Fibbs	Hip-Hop, Rock, blues

Áras
Nua-
Ealaíne
na
hÉireann

Tent 1

12pm - 1.30pm Gaiety Youth
Theatre Performances

1.30pm - 3pm NoDrama Theatre
Comedy Improv and more!

3pm - 6pm Spoken Word

' The Field Hospital'

featuring artists from Ireland, Britain & the United States. Hosted by Kit Fryatt.

Triage with Dave Lordan, Cah-44 and Boris Belony. A natural disaster, and American Serge Gainsbourg and a phallogological centrist. They'll tell you what's wrong all right.

Surgery with Erin Fornoff, Raven, John McKeown, Lucien Zell, and Amy Leigh Cutler. Skillful scalpels, soothing bedside manners from some of the best hands in the business.

Recovery with The Poetry Chicks. Abby Oliviera and Pamela Brown's powerfully composed, dazzlingly executed performances will leave you in fighting form.

Tent 2

3pm - 6pm REV. JM's "AFTER-LIFE"
Music, drama and performance in the key of black. Scenes of good and evil, sin and forgiveness and death and rebirth.

Saturday 27th

Let's Walk and Talk Kilmainham

from Monks & Knights to Royalists & Patriots...

Tour lasts 90 minutes and will be led by historian, Pat Liddy. No advance booking necessary. Lets Walk & Talk is a community initiative of Dublin City Council.

Saturday, 27th August, 11.30am Free
Meet outside The Patriots Inn, 760 South Circular Road, Kilmainham, D8

Inchicore Library

Storytime 11am and 2pm.

Patricia Campbell will facilitate 'Traditional tales and other stories' & a 'make your own sock puppet character' craft workshop.

The Patriots Inn

Friday 26th

9pm: Mambo Rock

Fifties Rock 'n Roll band. Play the hits Good golly miss molly, Under the moon of Love and more!

Saturday 27th

2pm – 4pm

BUSKING COMPETITION

Registration 1-2pm

Cash prizes, top prize of €150, Runners Up - €75 each.

Independent judges from the music industry.

Evening Programme – From 6pm

'TOTALLY WIRED' Comedy

Brilliant musical comedy duo as seen on TVs 'The Republic of Telly'

The Hungry Souls – (Rock/Blues)

The Poison Hearts- (Country/Rock)

Special Brew (Ska) play all the two tone classics from Madness to the Specials, the Beat and Bad Manners..

La Dolce Vita Restaurant

Friday 26th and Saturday 27th

8pm Jazz Dinner

Enjoy a special festival menu and be entertained by the hugely talented jazz- singer Georgia Cusack with guitar accompaniment by Patrick Groenland.

All Day – 'Dublin in Flux' Art Exhibition by Painter Caoimhghin o Croidheain

Saturday 27th

1pm: FESTIVAL LUNCH

Entertainment by classical guitarist Dermot Ryan, with short recitations by Dublin poets including Liam O'Meara. Hosted by actress Carmel Rooney.